PRESS RELEASE #124

The Palau Judiciary is pleased to welcome its new Deputy Administrative Director, Hasinta Idechong.

*(It is our duty at the Judiciary to inform the people what we do.
This Press Release is one way to achieve that responsibility.)*

Hasinta joins the Palau Judiciary as its Deputy

Administrative Director. In this position, she will work with the Judiciary's leadership to direct the day-to-day operations of the Judiciary and improve its administrative functions. Hasinta earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from California State University, San Bernardino. She has gained experience working in various leadership positions for a variety of government entities. She recently worked as Chief Financial Officer for Palau Public Utilities Corporation ("PPUC"), where she helped establish the corporation when the Utilities Consolidation Act merged Palau Water and Sewer Corporation into PPUC in 2013. Prior to her work in public utilities, Hasinta held positions with both the Ministry of Health and the Ministry of Finance.

Hasinta is from Ngiwal state and has a grown son in Guam and two elementary-age children at home with her here in Palau.
