PRESS RELEASE # 126

The Palau Judiciary is pleased to welcome its new Special Assistant to the Chief Justice, Ryobch Luiu.

*(It is our duty at the Judiciary to inform the people of what we do.
This Press Release is one way to achieve that responsibility.)*

Ryobch joins the Palau Judiciary as Special Assistant to the Chief Justice. In this position, he will be tasked with work on a variety of administrative matters in the Office of the Chief Justice and for the Judiciary, generally. He comes to the Judiciary from the Office of the Public Auditor where he served as a Junior Auditor for two years. Ryobch earned from University of Guam a bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a concentration in finance and economics and also received an associate's degree in Business Administration from Palau Community College. He is from Ngerbeched in Koror state.
