PRESS RELEASE #127

The Palau Judiciary is pleased to welcome its new Deputy Administrative Director, Keiden Kintol.

*(It is our duty at the Judiciary to inform the people what we do.
This Press Release is one way to achieve that responsibility.)*

Keiden joins the Palau Judiciary as its Deputy Administrative Director. In this position, he will work with the Judiciary's leadership to direct the day-to-day operations of the Judiciary and to improve its administrative functions. Keiden holds a master's degree in public administration and a bachelor's degree in international tourism from the University of Guam. He also earned a master's degree in education at San Diego State University. He worked as head of the Business Administration program at Palau Community College for 11 years and used the leadership experience he gained there in later positions in government. He comes to the Judiciary from the National government where he worked as Special Assistant to the Vice President and Public Information Officer for the Ministry of Justice. In those roles, he worked closely with the community and media outlets, writing press releases, speeches, and other communications pieces for the Vice President, and he dealt with the Republic's United Nations treaties and conventions involving the Ministry of Justice.

Keiden seeks to work hard to learn as much as possible about his new position in order to most effectively contribute to the overall administration of justice.
