PRESS RELEASE # 126

The Palau Judiciary is pleased to introduce its new digital library subscription.

*(It is our duty at the Judiciary to inform the people of what we do.
This Press Release is one way to achieve that responsibility.)*

The Palau Judiciary now has available to law library patrons a subscription to Westlaw, an online legal research service. The subscription provides access to legal treatises and secondary sources, legal forms, legal news, federal and state case law of the United States, and other legal resources. Patrons can access Westlaw from a computer terminal in the Singichi Ikesakes Law Library in Koror and from a computer terminal in the Judiciary's gallery at the Judiciary's offices in Ngerulmud, Melekeok. Access is available from 7:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday in Koror and from 7:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday in Ngerulmud.

This new subscription supplements the library's existing paper subscription and the Judiciary's online searchable Palauan case law database, which can be found on the Judiciary's website: www.palausupremecourt.net.
